

Singapore International School (HK) Summer Programme 2009

GENERAL INFORMATION

1. All application forms (page 3 - 6) must reach the school by Monday, 8 June 2009.
2. All activities will be conducted within the SIS premises.
3. All rules and regulations of the school apply.
4. Participants must be in school uniform.
5. The canteen will be closed.
6. Participants will assemble in the Gymnasium at P5 Level for arrival and dismissal.
7. The school reserves the right to cancel any course due to insufficient applicants. (Parents will be informed and cheques will be returned).

REFUND POLICY

1. NO refund will be given after 8 June 2009.
2. No refund will be given in the event of cancellation of activities due to inclement weather (e.g. hoisting of Typhoon Signal No. 3 for PY or No.8 or Red/Black Rainstorm Warning for all levels).
3. In view of the uncertain development of the H1N1 Human Swine Influenza in Hong Kong, the school shall follow the advisory note issued by the Hong Kong Education Bureau (EDB). Should there be school closure/ suspension of lessons during the period of the summer programme between 13 to 24 July, participants will receive full refund if the course has not started. However, if the course has commenced, partial payment of the agreed course fee will be made based on the percentage of course duration covered.

REGISTRATION AND PAYMENT

1. All cheques are to be made payable to The Singapore International School Foundation Ltd.
2. Please write a separate cheque for each child and for different courses.
3. Please write the course title, code, child's name, class and contact number on the reverse of each cheque.
4. Application form(s) together with cheque(s) should be put in the level mailboxes at the P6 Level or mailed to the school.
