SCMP Student of the Year – Best Devotion to School

The South China Morning Post awarded Best Devotion to School to students whose involvement and sense of service has won the respect and admiration of teachers and fellow students. This prize recognises senior secondary students who combine the qualities of responsible leaders and good team players, while also being adept at planning, following through, and inspiring others.

Best Devotion to School (Shortlisted) CHAN JUSTINE TIN NOK

SCMP Student of the Year – Linguist

The Student of the Year – Linguist category is for students who have achieved a high level of proficiency in English and Putonghua. The judges look for precision and originality in use of the language, whether that is in writing short stories or speeches, in debates, or perhaps even in creating scripts for student productions.

Linguist Putonghua (Shortlisted) TIAN XUEMU

Victrix Ludorum (Swim Meet)

The Victrix Ludorum awardee won a medal for every race that she participated in. She won gold medals in backstroke and freestyle, as well as a silver medal in breaststroke. She also achieved silver medals in the house and medley relays, and a bronze in the raft relay.

ZHU JOYCE

Victor Ludorum (Swim Meet)

The Victor Ludorum awardee won a gold medal in the Freestyle, a silver medal in the backstroke, and a bronze medal in the breaststroke. He also won a gold medal as part of the house relay team.
